Family Story Telling at the Library!

The Literacy Coalition of New Brunswick is partnering with the Fredericton Public Library to host an afternoon story telling session in honour of Family literacy Day!

Where: Fredericton Public library

When: Saturday afternoon, January 27th from 2:30-3:30 pm.

Families are invited to join us in the library Wildwood Room, to enjoy:

- Special story telling session by Joanne LeBlanc Haley, educator, renowned story teller and founding member of the National Story Telling Association of Canada
- Book reading featuring books by award winning children's author and illustrator, Barbara Reid, who is best known for her plasticine-art pictures. Children will have an opportunity to try their hand at creating their own plasticine creations, following the book reading.
- Free books: In honour of Family Literacy Day, the Literacy Coalition of New Brunswick will be giving out a free copy of a Barbara Reid book to 30 families on a first come, first served basis.
